Amiable Aussie Rolf Harris was in Kingston on Saturday, signing copies of his new book and raising money for a local charity. The TV celebrity cartoonist was in Borders, in Market Place, to promote his book Rolf On Art and gave a couple of signed copies away to the Princess Alice Hospice in Esher.

Marek Bublik, the store's assistant marketing manager, said: "There was a queue from the very front of the shop to the very back for the whole duration. Rolf is a fantastic bloke, a really nice guy." Original Beatles drummer Pete Best will be in the shop on November 28 and Dynasty diva Joan Collins will make a return next month.
